

THE WORSHIPFUL COMPANY OF

MASONS OF LONDON

CHARTER

THE CHARTER OF THE WORSHIPFUL COMPANY OF MASONS OF LONDON

The Charter was granted by King Charles II on 17th December 1677. The original of this Charter is held in the Public Records Office at Kew in London.

King James II confiscated the original Charter and replaced it with one of his own which varied the terms and contained, inter alia, a provision that the Court of the Company must all be members of the Church of England and communicants. This Charter is dated 9th February 1686 and was purchased at a cost of £125.

The Company evidently preferred the original grant and an Exemplification of the original grant was obtained under the Privy Seal of Queen Anne in which the whole text of the Charter of King Charles II is recited. This Charter is dated 1st June 1702 and is kept in the records of the City of London in Guildhall.

This booklet contains a copy of the original 1677 Charter.
